

DEMEYER

Chéruit (Madame Wormser) designs of remarkably soft gold tissue and great bands of sable, a wrap to match the black and gold of any brilliant Paris night. It is one of those delightful wraps of ambiguous line that may be caught closely to the figure and held there—without hook or eye or button. The sort of wrap the Parisienne knows everything about wearing. Worn by Mlle. Maude Loty.

Mlle. Maude Loty in a Chéruit Wrap

Illustrationsprobe aus Harper's Bazar