

Pleasant
DREAMS OF THE "TWELFTH"

... of the thousands of brace that have fallen to your gun!—just as in bed at home. Yet you have travelled 400 miles to Scotland in one of the East Coast Sleeping-Car Expresses which leave King's Cross every evening for Edinburgh, Glasgow, Fort William, Aberdeen, Lossiemouth, Perth and Inverness. They are perfectly appointed for sleep.

By day the "Flying Scotsman," other Restaurant-Car Trains and a Pullman Train leave at convenient intervals.

As "the Twelfth" approaches, accommodation is in great demand. You are advised to book early. Applications for accommodation should be addressed to the Station Master, L.N.E.R., King's Cross Station, N.1.

THREE JOLLY
TRAVELLING COMPANIONS

SUPREME comfort, perfect food, and absorbing interest on either side of the route make the journey from King's Cross to Scotland an enjoyable experience.

Your route passes through typically English scenery, lavish in Cathedrals, Castles and historic remains; and for an hour you have a refreshing glimpse of the sea.

The 'Flying Scotsman,' an all Pullman train and other restaurant-car trains leave King's Cross daily for North Berwick, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Perth and Inverness.

Every evening East Coast Sleeping-car Expresses take the same route. You might be in bed at home; you would never know the difference.

Time Table and Tourist Ticket Pamphlet at any L.N.E.R. Office or Agency, or from Passenger Manager, Liverpool Street Station, E.C.1.
