

"Atlantic Coast Express"

Do you know North Cornwall?

That wonderful coast of giant rocks, majestic headlands, and sweeps of sand? Here there is no dust-laden air of city by-ways, but the free winds of heaven; no tapping of typewriters, but the steady pounding of the Atlantic surf, and the weird crying of sea-birds. Choose North Cornwall for your holiday—where bathing is a supreme joy, and walks and picnics in the bracing air are things to remember for all time. Bude—Boscastle—Tintagel—Port Isaac—Padstow. By the new "Atlantic Coast Express" from London (Waterloo). Guides and cheap ticket pamphlets at S.R. Enquiry Offices, etc., or by post from Indoor Commercial Manager, London Bridge Station, S.E. 1.

"Where the Sun Shines Most."

The Squirrel is wise—he lays in his store for the winter in good time. Follow his example! A week or a fortnight on the Sunny South Coast, "where Summer lingers," or on the Continent, will set you and your family up for the Winter. Remember the Squirrel.

Dorset Hills and The Sea

Do you know Dorset?

Those rich uplands of the countryside, tumbling down to sea and sand? Do you know that indented shore that runs from Poole to Lulworth Cove, by Weymouth and Chesil Beach to Lyme Regis on the borders of Devon? Quite close to busy watering places you may come across little coves, inhabited by a few fishermen with their boats and their nets. The Dorset Coast is delightful for bathing and captures all the glorious sunshine that ever blessed an English holiday.

Fast and frequent corridor and restaurant-car trains run daily from London (Waterloo), details of which you may obtain by post from Indoor Commercial Manager, London Bridge Station, S.E. 1. Guide-books and 15-day ticket pamphlets obtainable at S.R. Stations and Enquiry Offices.
