

Portrait d'une femme élégante

She adores all exquisite things . . . clothes fastidiously chosen . . . jewels worn "like stars on the fingers of night" . . . toilettries that express the brilliance — enhance the allure — of her own vivid self. She finds a challenge irresistible, an essence keyed to her own singing days, in the magic allure of Parfum Djer-Kiss. This precious odeur — created by M. Kerkoff of Paris — is obtainable in face powder, rouge, talcum powder, sachet, bath crystals, eau de toilette, as well as compacts!
