

among the interpreters of international fashion-art which is born in Paris and takes the same paths, with but slight deviations, in New York, London, Berlin and Vienna.

Luza was born in Lima, Peru, trained in Belgium, first struggled to independence in America and perfected himself in Paris. Thus he combines in his own person all qualifications for becoming a prophet of international elegance. Translated by E. T. S.

