

GOETZELL

always appeals to the modern man rather than the sweet girl type. The same choice of subject and treatment dictates his landscape posters. Strong composition and stern beauty are better publicity arguments than sentimental photographic representations.

We would recommend our tourist offices to pay more attention than hitherto to the work of this talented artist when seeking artistic collaborators. Trans. by E. T. S.

Study