

KRÜGER

The chocolate industry in Germany is full of the most acute rivalries. This rivalry is most apparent in the sphere of wrappings. One may even say that this business rivalry has resulted in a certain barbarism of taste. It gives us all the more pleasure to introduce an artist to our readers' notice who, in spite of all concessions, is continually concerned, to create original and aesthetically valuable work.

Translated by E. T. Scheffauer

Schokoladenpackungen
Chocolate Wrappings

