

Poster

ROTTER

Mr. Willi Rotter of Prague is by profession an electrical engineer, but after completing his studies he went over to commercial art and for the time being works in Paris with "Au Printemps" and Damour. He created most of the advertising material for Skoda-Werke and has also been responsible for preparing quite a number of posters and other advertising material for various firms. His style of work compares favourably with good decorative commercial art of the present day.

