

K Ö H L E R

Köhler studied in the commercial art schools of Dresden, Munich and Vienna and at the same time was working in different studios. Among other things he was independent advertising chief of the Premierwerke A.G., Eger in Bohemia, and he is at present resident in Prague working as a commercial artist. His chief work is modern decorative posters.