

Ludwig Hohlwein is a master of the tourist propaganda poster. His style is extraordinarily well adapted to the task of creating romance out of the sheer realities of a landscape. Note also the shipping poster from Amtsberg and Professor Otto Arpke (page 17) in which the achievement of the goal was the only propaganda motive employed.

Prof.

O T T O A R P K E

O T T O A M T S B E R G

17

