

U R E C H

decorative design. We see how fine is his instinct for color, how he always modifies and tones down. He is a master of his palette and obtains his effects without resorting to crude contrasts. We must not omit to mention his gift for figure-drawing which imparts a distinctive note to his very original work.

Urech worked his way through the courses of the Swiss Academy of Art. His home is in Binningen near Basel.

Trans. by E. T. Scheffauer.