

if with but a few exceptions, their work already seems a little dry and colorless to us to-day, this does not detract from what they accomplished. They were faced with a new task, with no tradition to guide them and were real road-makers and pioneers. It was the Munich graphic artist Hermann Virl who infused real

Weinetiketten

PROF.
HERMANN VIRL

Wine Labels