

PROF. W. BUHE
LEIPZIG

Walter Buhe, an excellent graphic artist, whose acquaintance we made just before the war, has in the meantime developed more and more in the direction of the picturesque. We reproduce here a series of book jackets, in which the picturesque romanticism and refined use of color are particularly effective. Books need just such a dress. It creates interest and excitement, resolving itself into a wish to read the books in question.

Book Jackets