

Entwurf WOLFGANG MESCHENDORFER

Design

Four Posters from a competition for transport means of Berlin

The competition was carried out by the class of Prof. Ernst Böhm as an educational exercise. In addition to the geographical orientation certain characterisation of the excursion places and clear statements of the fares on the public transport facilities were demanded