

WINE-RESTAURANT

DESIGNS
SACHS TRAUBE

Among Berlin restaurants, the Traube wine-restaurant has always been very active in making propaganda for itself. In no. 6 of vol. 8 we already published various examples of such advertising. Recently the graphic combination Kupfer-Sachs have undertaken the decorative aspect of Traube advertising. Their illustrations are jolly and inviting, their typography tasteful and the impression as a whole is of a convincing piece of propaganda.
