circular building, nor in the appropriate use of the given or decoratively employed material – Jenter is chiefly effective by his organic combination of the production for advertising purposes, together with everything which surrounds it decoratively or objectively. He creates an atmosphere of penetrative quality which testifies to, and at the same time, convinces of the importance and necessity of the product. Martin Jenter who became famous in USA. came from Schleswig-Holstein as a young man. If the young artist's talent were to be termed "phenomenal", it would but correctly express that which astonishes artists, familiar with the material.
