SPESSART

AN EXHIBITION IN THE BERLIN EUROPA HOUSE, SEPTEMBER—OKTOBER 1934

This exhibition, arranged by the Rhön-Spessart publicity office in Würzburg, is fundamentally a new propaganda idea, purporting to awaken official and public interest in a distressed area. In such cases it has hitherto been the practice to collect stout volumes of reports, statistics and other documents of experts and those immediately concerned and to lay these before the ministries which might be expected to interest themselves. It usually lasted a long time, indeed a very long time before the powers consulted and the body of experts had all expressed their opinion and the distressed area heard anything of what had been determined in the seats of the mighty. District-superintendent Dr. Hellmuth, who is Governing-president of Main-Franconia, worked out a plan of aid for the Rhön-Spessart area and this is now to be carried out under the title "Dr. Hellmuth
