

M E Y E R, Offenbach

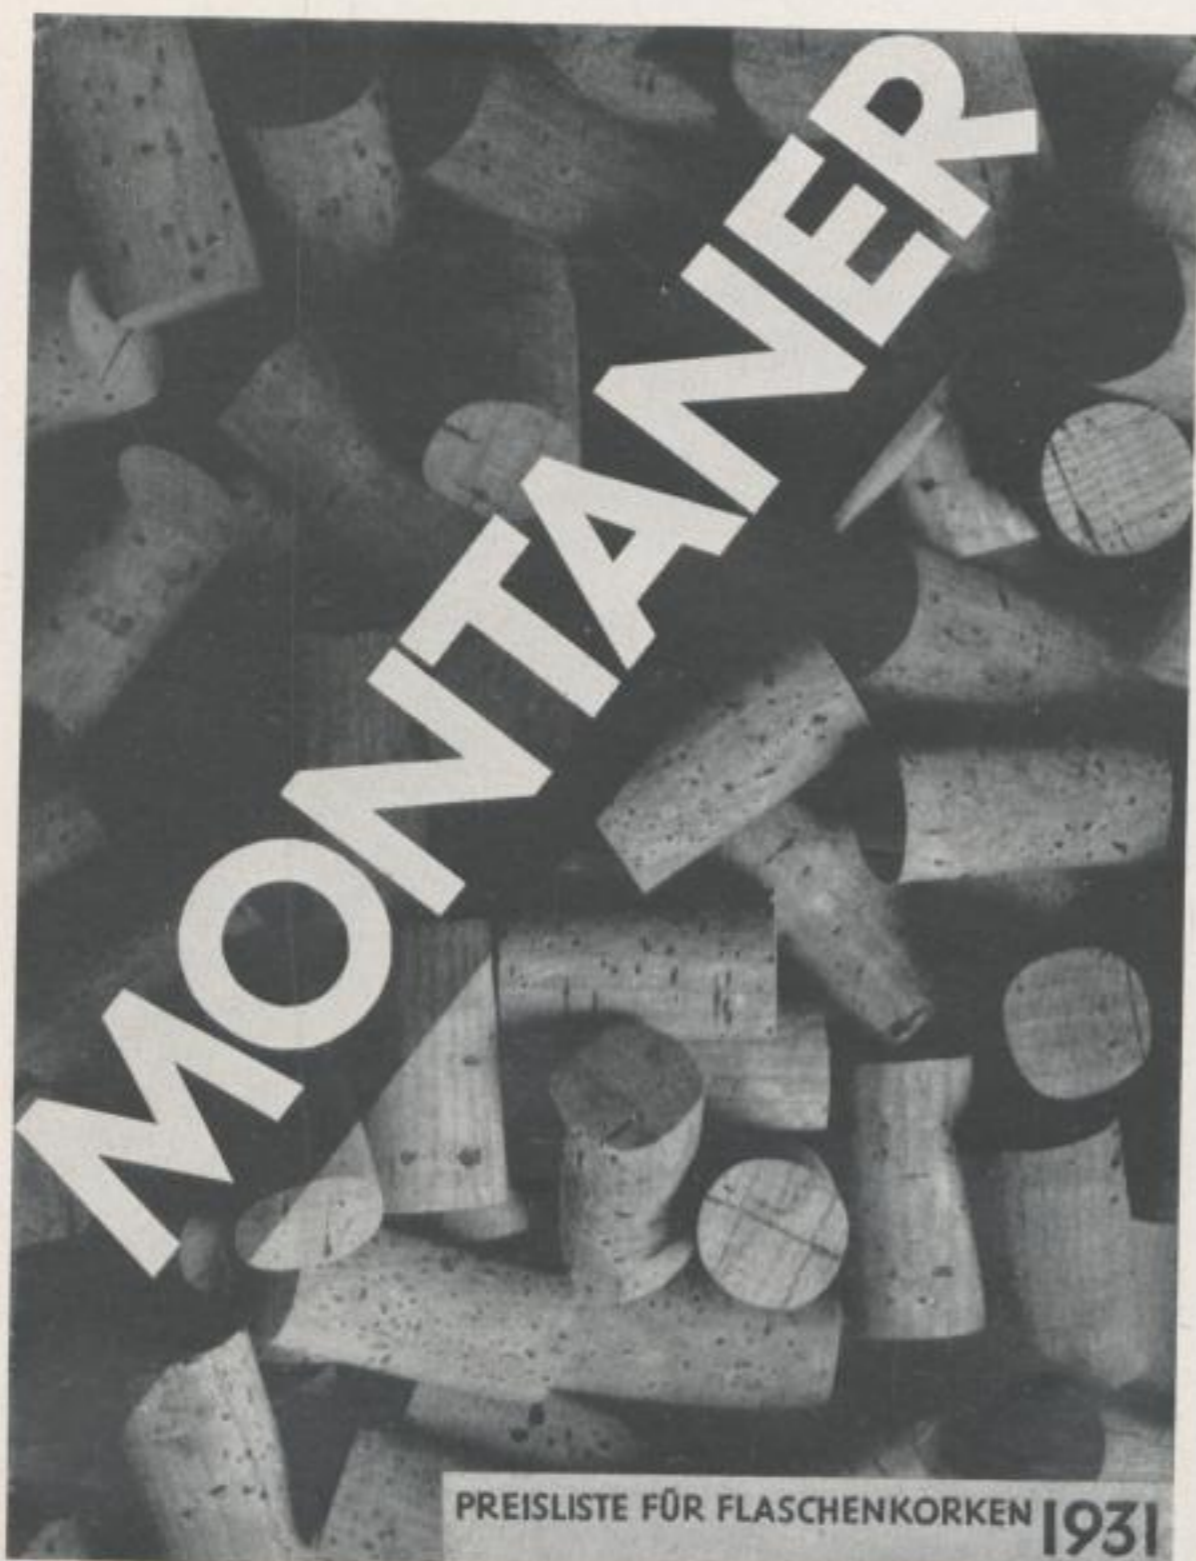

and as a clever draughtsman and a modern man who knows how to deal with a camera, Erich Meyer is capable of solving tasks in advertising art which demand a special degree of ability and experience, and which must bear the stamp of good and suitable design.

Erich Meyer devotes himself to every form of advertising art, from the book-jacket to the poster, and from the winebottle label to the artistically written document.

Dr. Rudolf Wolf.

GRABBE DON JUAN UND FAUST

Title illustration for a prospectus

jo

Trade Marks

