

V. BODDIEN

Boddien treats the subjects entrusted to him for illustration very carefully and delicately. The aesthetic idea determines the motif, drawing and colour, and impresses the idea of the advertisement on the consciousness in a sympathetic form. This good quality makes him suitable for tasks which, besides advertising purposes, are intended to have a representative character.

H. K. Frenzel

Illustrations for Menu Cards