

The odd week end

TWEED JACKETS We've been waiting for years a while to have an advertisement on odd tweed clothes, only someone other than us got in the way. Here we are then - with three great jackets in a row. The first is a double-breasted check. It will come just in the most fitting shape you can. The middle one is a long-sleeved. You might notice the long centre vent in the breast, instead, the pattern for extra warmth. 4 gms. The third is a single-breasted with a grey-woolback in an unusual pattern. It makes a handsome double-breasted jacket, and the middle may be the best. But that the same may hold true. You can't see the trousers, but we'll tell you in confidence that all three pairs are Daks. 30s.

SLIPOVERS So you can have it over, we have an immense selection of slippers. Here is one in blue flannel with a nice look in grey. The other is in flannel, with one velvet lining and 4 work. 25s.

SHOES The shoes look smart, that the brown calf and white leather sole. It's not expensive, but every man should possess a pair. These shoes have a large toe with a wide sole. Size 12. 30s.

SHIRTS The smart dress and selection of patterns, white, blue, and red. The best - all wool, cotton, white check, and a dark green, 25s. Blue, for better, striped in check, 25s. Brown, striped black and red, 25s. All have white waists. The size is from 14 to 18.

COATS Incidentally, you will find the best Exhibition on the 20th floor. You can find these qualities, without making a mistake, in the best and all manner of coat.

SHORTS AND SLACKS

WHIPCORDS

The perfect fabric for rain-or-shine golfers, because it's wind-proof, smooth, clean, and easy to brush the mud off. In three good greys and one very nice drab.

FLANNEL SHORTS

White - and it's worsted-flannel to be exact. For tennis and squash. Seeded players at Wimbledon and many crack squash players wore Daks Shorts last year.
