

Sorry we're late . . .

Inserate und Prospekte der Firma Simpson, London

Advertisements and catalogues of the firm of Simpson, London

Met Tom for lunch . . .
Booked some theatre tickets . . .
Had a shave and hair cut . . .
Chose some cigars . . .
And visited the gift shop.

but I . . .

Bought a Scotch pub . . .
Tried a new racket . . .
Bought a pair of shoes . . .
Planned a trip abroad . . .
And swung some golf clubs.

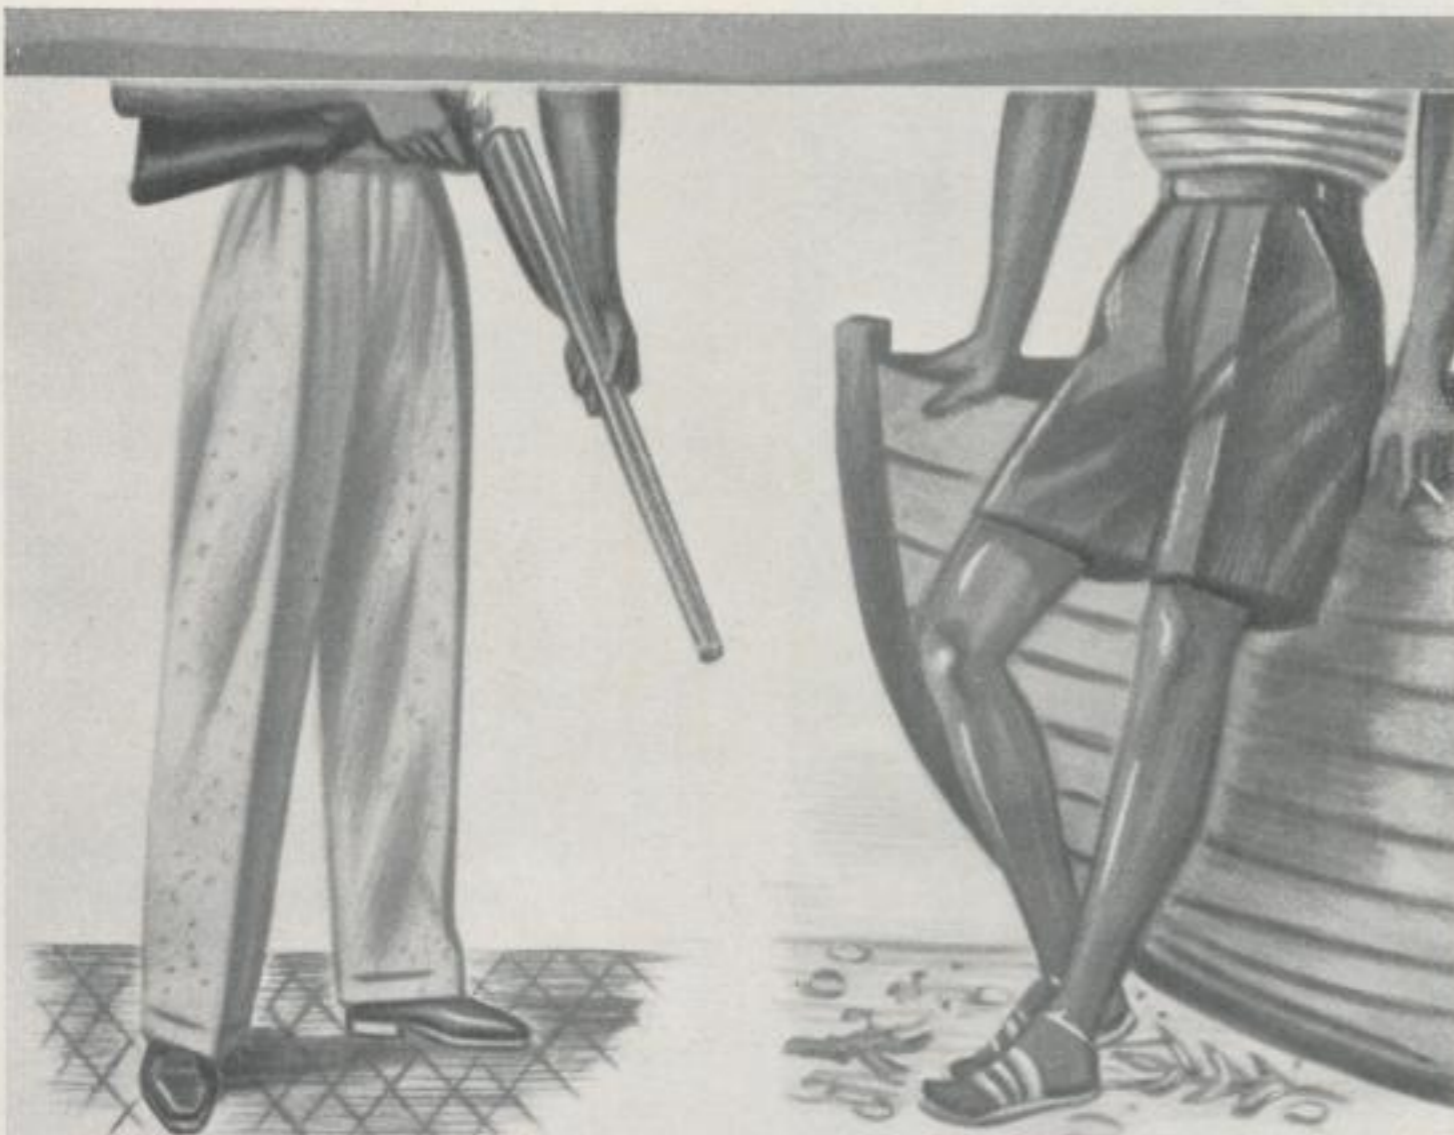

and I . . .

ALL ON THE LOWER GROUND FLOOR

Men who go down to our Lower Ground Floor for just a few minutes may be found there hours later! They're talking Razmon Aliboes with our cigar expert, perhaps. They've found a couple of pots in the snack bar. They're scathed in towels in the grand barber's shop. They're buying presents in the gift shop for other people, or shoes in the shoe shop for themselves. And even then they haven't started on our wonderful sports department, or bought a dog, or booked a couple of stalls, or a Mediterranean cruise . . . The truth is that the Lower Ground Floor isn't a floor at all—it's a whole shopping district in itself. Where it's always bright . . . Where it never rains . . . Where it's never too hot or too cold . . . And where everything is of the most unquestionable best!

SIMPSON 202 PICCADILLY, REGENT 2002

ROUGH STUFFS

For knocking about in! West of England woollen flannels in darkish greys. Also tweeds in navy blue, oatmeal, natural and grey mixture—all with cool linen weave.

SPORTS SHORTS

For camping, walking or climbing. Cut just right. Really tough in corduroy. Cool as a cucumber in linen. But you can have them in any of the Daks materials!