

– best beech woods,’ said the Squirrel solemnly, ‘best under the sun. If you’ve nothing else on hand, you two, this morning, I should like to take you round my little place down there. My beech leaf was never greener than this year’s crop, never more incandescent.’

Near Chalfont and Latimer Station, on the Metropolitan Line, are Ladies' Arbour, West Wood and Park Wood. Together they form a tract of beeches along a ridge with footpaths threading its whole length. Cheap return tickets to the Chiltern country are issued, daily, from all stations on the Metropolitan and East London Lines. On Sundays and Bank Holidays by all trains. Mondays to Fridays between 10 and 4. Saturdays by all trains after 10. Chalfont and Latimer Station (2/9 return) is 39 minutes from Baker Street (Metropolitan Line) or Marylebone (L.N.E.R.).

AWAY BY METROPOLITAN

LONDON TRANSPORT

“Good spot, the Chilterns.”

Eine Inseratserie menschlich und freundlich. Großzügig in der Argumentierung, ohne Betonung des Technischen, der Schnelligkeit und der Bequemlichkeit. Diese Dinge werden durch den Text zur Selbstverständlichkeit.

L O N D O N
T R A N S P O R T

– and best of all,’ murmured the Trout, ‘are the cheerful, swirling waters of the River Chess. Believe me, my young friend, there’s nothing, absolutely nothing, half so much worth doing as just bobbing about by the edge of a stream. And what a stream!’

Chorley Wood Station, on the Metropolitan Line, is quite convenient for both Sarratt Bottom and Chenies Bottom, where the most beautiful of the Chiltern streams may be enjoyed at its best. Cheap return tickets to the Chiltern country are issued, daily, from all stations on the Metropolitan and East London Lines. On Sundays, and also Bank Holidays, by all trains. On Mondays to Fridays between 10 and 4. On Saturdays by all trains after 10. Chorley Wood Station (return fare 2/6) is 35 minutes from Baker Street (Metropolitan Line) or Marylebone (L.N.E.R.)

AWAY BY METROPOLITAN

LONDON TRANSPORT