

ANTON SAILER:

MUNICH CARNIVAL-DECORATIONS

The Munich Carnival weeks are themselves a chapter in the history of "advertising art". A whole town advertises exuberant joy of life, first by posters and in the press, and then more intimately by means of stimulating decorations in the halls. In accordance with tradition everyone in Munich, from the owner of a small hall to the proprietor of a large hotel business, makes it a point of honour to have the most original decorations possible. However successful the effect of a gigantic decorative scheme, the decorations of the large halls are changed fairly often, and

C. O. MÜLLER

Carnival decorations for the "Artists' Night" in the Künstlerhaus, Munich

