Are you taking full advantage of the recent substantial reductions in Transatlantic telephone charges? At any time during the day you can telephone your friends in New York or Montreal for 29¢ a minute (formerly 40¢); and this charge is still further reduced to £1 a minute between 10.0 p.m. and 10.0 a.m. on weekdays and throughout Sundays. The services are quick, reliable and simple to use.

Do your business and keep in touch with your interests overseas by telephone.

TRANSATLANTIC TELEPHONE CHARGES REDUCED BY 30%.

The cost of Transatlantic telephone calls has been reduced. You can now telephone New York or Montreal for 29¢ a minute, as compared with £2 a minute formerly. Calls made to these places on weekdays between 10.0 p.m. and 10.0 a.m., and throughout Sundays cost only £1 a minute. The minimum charge is for three minutes as usual. These reductions represent a saving of about 30% on your radio-telephone bill. Keep in touch with your friends and develop your business through the Overseas Telephone Service.
