Summer nights

is so suited to help a young and talented artist to clarify and form his or her own style.

We realize from Gerda Romstöck's work that the manual difficulties of the technique of wood-engraving can lead to discipline in the formal, if serious artistic determination and sufficient imagination are forthcoming.

All her work makes it clear that Gerda Romstöck is qualified to illustrate books. We cordially hope that she will be given work which will allow her to exercise her talent.
