CERTIFICATES FOR THE GERMAN REICH FEDERATION FOR PHYSICAL EXERCISES

This series of certificates which Max Hertwig designed with a delicate conception of the task entrusted to him by the Reich Federation for Physical Exercises, owe their origin to a readily comprehensible desire to create worthy sports certificates. It was furthermore desired to terminate the multiplicity of certificate types which have heretofore dominated this field. In this connection, it must be admitted that a great many of the certificates which have been in use have satisfied only the most modest standards from the standpoint of taste. It is consequently a most meritorious step on the part of the Reich Federation for Physical Exercises in which all German sports organizations and associations are united, to endeavour once for all to put an end to this condition. Max Hertwig's varied solutions have the indisputable advantage of harmoniously combining the
