

Keramik von PAULO

Ceramic work by PAULO

may be revived and given a new shape in new creative work on the natural basis of a sound national tradition, without falling into the error of becoming antiquated, and may be used moreover as the starting-point of entirely new designs in the service of the practical work to be done to-day.

Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkman