

FRANCO MOSCA · MILANO

for his age. This same seriousness and the clarity that marks his aims as an artist are evident in the reproductions of his work accompanying this brief appreciation. They explain too his amazing success and his reputation as an artist. He has frequently been awarded recognition in competitions of a national character, and in addition, he has received some splendid offers of work in other countries. Never has he wasted his creative talent, and I am sure we may hope to see work still more mature and more important produced by him in the future.

Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkman

Plakate

