

Verpackungen für Käse
Packages for cheese

in his capacity as a designer of book decoration and arrangement. One book on horses decorated and arranged by him from its cardboard case to the last of its illustrations and inside covers, is a model of excellence. The graceful form of the lettering of the title, beautifully executed and legible as it is, might well be taken as the criterion of all Spuehler's work. He is not parsimonious in his