

Aus der Serie: „Träume mit Humor geträumt“ Eines Morgens befand sich der Milchladen im vierten Stock!“

Out of the series: “Dreams Dreamt with Humour” “... . one morning the milk-shop was in the fourth storey!”

is unusually care-free, joyously optimistic in fact. That precisely this touch is an asset in publicity appeal is obvious.
 The effect is productive. Like a gnome this master of humour knocks with his hammer on the sides of his fellowmen making them split with laughter and so establishes a secret bond of sympathy between goods and consumers.
