NORTHERN TOURIST TRAFFIC POSTERS

these northern climes in search of motifs. In literature too as well as in art many a proof has been given of the reciprocal relations existing between Germany and her northern kinsfolk. For it is the Germanic blood common to these nations and to Germany that unites the spiritual and the physical world of the nordic peoples with that of their kindred race. The northern Travel Posters likewise form links between the northern climes and Germany with suggestive and vigorous appeal. German travellers are certain to be attracted by these picturesque views. The light sum-
