

of the subject for which appeal is to be made. His work passes through all the stages of a maturing and forming process which finally leads to highly striking results with their precise, compact and generous formulation which makes it all the more convincing. For the rest Binder is a versatile artist who has met with distinct success in almost every sphere of applied graphic art.

Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkmann

Prospekte Folders

