

A large number of most effective wall-almanacs have again been produced this year by trade and industry, and above all by representatives of industrial graphic art. A number of these most successful almanacs which are interesting as examples of graphic art are reproduced here.

Translated by Salmond-Volkmann

