

herself despises. Everything Nature gives us is rich and interesting. Rich and interesting too are this artist's woodcuts. One senses the delight he takes in working the surface of the woodcut-block. Veritable harmony exists between master, material and tools! As for his compositions, they show the love of dancing and singing long since known to be innate in those nations at the other side of Germany's north-east and north frontiers. Pulsing life, vitality is expressed by each bold, whirling line of A. Junkers' compositions with their lilt and their swing. Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkman
