

New year's card

definitely influenced by his fondness for the history and traditions of Munich whose cordial welcome he highly appreciated. This too has assisted him greatly in striking the right note when he deals with Southern German characteristics. As a painter Leidl has a firm vigorous touch and so he confidently attacks with unperturbed calm the graphic problems awaiting him,

Design for the windows of a wine-room