WILLI FUCHS

Here he finally completed his studies. Willi Fuchs has thus had the advantage of a thorough and manysided art training. The specimens of his work reproduced in this issue give evidence of this training, and show the hand of a conscientious and skilled craftsman. Before his stay in Berlin Fuchs was already known to the public as a graphic artist who had done successful publicity work for the wine trade, a task he was fitted for by nature; for he was born in the wine country of Lower Franconia, not far from Würzburg. Now, however, Fuchs began to extend his activities to other branches of graphic art, and to book illustration in particular. He had
