

York. Success followed success and he received the appreciation and honour that were his due. The Royal Post Office of Hungary marked the 900th anniversary of the crowning of S. Stephan, the first Hungarian King, by setting a prize competition for a series of postage stamps. Diósy sent in a number of designs which were accepted. In other subsequent competitions he headed the list of winners. Antal Diósy may be spoken of in terms of a productive genius and a versatile artist. We have selected for reproduction in these

Vignette

Briefmarkenentwürfe

