

GRANT

B U K A R E S T

The charming "visiting-card" on page 15 revealing as it does so frankly the artist's personality and activity, establishes at once a personal contact between him and the beholder. Quite suddenly we seem to know Petre Grant, and recognize him for what he is, namely, an artist of decided originality and of sufficient virtuosity to strike a lighter vein in addition to more serious work. And indeed he has had his fill of work. Grant, namely, was
