 Illustrations and vignettes to C. M. Bellmann, "Episteln and Gesänge" traditional national dress depicted in Bellmann's book. Moreover, this gifted artist displays a decided talent for decorative design as is evidenced by his book-jackets already cited above, by his packages and posters. In addition, in his decorative work for the underground floor of Stockholm's Town Hall Yngve Berg has proved his mastery of large-scale compositions. Much of the artist's work has been shown at Art Exhibitions in Leipzig, London, New York and Paris where it brought him the fame he deserves.

His country can well be proud that it has given to book-art and to the world one of the best artists in this field of art.
