

CABEZA COLOSAL DEL EMPERADOR ROMANO LUCIUS VERUS, HALLADA EN LOS ALREDEDORES DE ROMA

Giralt Miracle belongs to the third generation of a family of artists and faithfully carries on its tradition. His grandfather was a painter, his father a well-known lithographer whose engravings brought him fame, and he himself although barely thirty has already made his reputation as an advertising artist. Miracle received his training from his father, a circumstance that obviously influenced his development and style. He is an artist of extraordinary sensibility and the delicate colourist is seen in
