

cosmetic goods we find boxes and wrappings for sweets and chocolate all delightfully designed as gifts and in keeping with their contents. Moreover, Hilde Bauer has done vignettes and illustrations for books all of which are drawn with delicate and elegant strokes. As a creative artist Hilde Bauer has done interesting coloured drawings in various techniques in which she sets down ably and vigorously impressions gained on her travels. This work of hers reveals the fact that Nature is at the root of this artist's ability, for she studies it closely and is not merely content with technical skill and tasteful arrangement. Hilde Bauer takes her work seriously and is thus certain to be perfectly capable of solving any tasks awaiting her in the future. Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkmann
