Sepo—truly a name of good repute! A name that is never forgotten when poster artists are the subject of conversation. This is not his first appearance in the pages of „Gebrauchsgraphik“, and it is thus doubly interesting to note how this artist has developed and to see what position he holds today. A few words will do to mention external facts. Sepo is still in Paris and mainly occupied with advertising art. In addition he paints, sketches and models as of old. This tempe-
