

attention. He contributed to this sphere of work designs to be spoken of artistically and technically in terms of the most outstanding examples of the best kind of exhibition art in Europe. Moreover, Pál Szücs devotes much of his time to the woodcut, and it may be said that despite his occupation with other branches of art this

Ruinen Ruins

