perfect in form. Of the work he did at this period his designs for the confectioner Dehmel gained a world reputation not to mention his mural paintings and charming packages and wrappings with their delightful absurdities and naive ideas. In all probability this work of Berzeviczy's will be dealt with more completely in a later issue of this periodical. On the overthrow of the old Habsburg monarchy Berzeviczy went to Italy and made his home in Milan. This city had a special attraction for him;
