

Illustration from the Christmas number of the periodical "Fili"

for
with are in-
are a"
ons
for
y's

sphere of work. He deliberately formulates his new and always unusual ideas in a manner that might be termed simple, almost primitive in fact. The work he does in colour is remarkable for the richness of its nuances and fascinates the eye with its wealth of delicate, finely graded intermediate shades of colour. Everything that

Stickerei

Embroidery