

Buchumschlag

E. R. WEISS

Book-cover

blest with corn and wine, one of those southerly provinces whose ethereal radiance and warm sunshine keep alive the piety of ancient days. Under this influence E. R. Weiss was inspired to compose the Harvest Thanksgiving tablet «Bread and Wine» into a cantus firmus on love of Nature that significantly enough harmonizes with the paean of the same name by Friedrich Hölderlin.

Translated by Flora Salmond-Volkmann