

Schöner Brunnen

Frauenkirche

We wish to introduce to our readers two young graphic artists who have just completed their training at the State Academy in Leipzig. Wiltraud Jasper began her studies at the Folkwang School in Essen and afterwards worked for some time in a publicity studio, whereas Lydia Sasulin received her training as a painter in her native city of Danzig. Both artists were students at the State Academy in Leipzig where besides taking the usual graphic subjects they devoted special