

FIRST ROOM.

CABINET OF BRONZES.

The Cabinet of Bronzes, the entry-room of the Green Vaults, contains 115 statues, groups and models of different sizes and works of art, for the most part copies of ancient sculptures. Some of the best were purchased by the three Electors Christian I, Christian II and John George I or obtained in the reign of Augustus II from the collections of Bellori, Albani, Chigi, Kircher and at last from the museum of Count Brühl.

We commence with the row on the right hand, and see first

No. 1. A crucifix (18 inches h.) by John of Bologna (1524—1608) the most renowned bronze in this room.

No. 2. A small statue of Charles II of England known by the name of St. George and the dragon.
