

Table with multiple columns listing professions and their corresponding page numbers. The table is organized into two main sections: the left section covers professions from 1 to 32, and the right section covers professions from 33 to 95. Each entry includes the profession name and a page number.