

The image shows the front cover of an old book. The cover is decorated with a marbled paper pattern consisting of irregular, cell-like shapes in shades of blue and green, separated by dark red or brown veins. The spine of the book is a solid, dark blue color. In the bottom-left corner, there is a small, rectangular white paper label with handwritten text in black ink. The text on the label reads "H. Sax. H" on the first line and "1175h" on the second line. There is some wear and tear on the cover, particularly near the bottom-left corner where the marbled paper has been partially rubbed away, revealing the underlying board material.
